• First Draft of New Church Directory Needs to be Reviewed

We are one step closer to making the new church directory available to our church members. The draft of the new directory is now in the foyer. As you enter or exit the church, please find your family's information and confirm it is correct. If any information needs to be changed or to be added, please mark on the copy with a pen. If there is any information you do not want published, please mark through it. The deadline to update your information is May 5. The directories will be available to be picked up by June 1, 2018, at the cost of $5 per copy.
